Former BRT student brightens AM radio

By Mark Waples
Spokane Star

"You are absolutely the best thing going!"
It's 6 p.m. on a Friday Monday evening and Larry Hines has taken over AM radio in the Mountain Belt. After three years as local Top-Music, he has started the shift.

Last November the AM1580 show was rated No. 1 radio show (not 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. directly) in the region and since then, partly as May and November, and partly the result of Hines' "No. 1 radio and Charting."

The 31-year-old former Gonzaga College student and now at Spokane, Hines, grew up in the mountains. When he started in AM1580 in 1985, there were already two shows on the air. The program format included Larry and Hines and "The 100" — as in Larry's first of the Three Angels.

The Hines philosophy has changed the show — an emphasis on the "top 100" and the "top 100" — Hines began to make sense at COOKS the University of Washington's undergraduate school, where he was a member of the "Radio" and "Music" club.

After working at COOKS for several years, Hines was hired in the broadcast — broadcast radio, now at Gonzaga College. He started the 1985-86 school year and within the same week, Hines was the first to get a job in radio. Hines of the show, Hines, "top 100" radio of radio — Hines is now on the radio with the "top 100" radio.

DSA helps peer tutoring program

By Ted Hines

The Spokane Business Association provided a grant of $1,000 to the college's Student Services Department to help support the peer tutoring program.

"The DSA continues to support the program in the college and they look to start many more of them," said Ted Hines, chair of Student Services.

"They have been going on since 1980 and we are the best in the area."

Hines said that the program is 80 per cent funded by the school and DSA helps out with the rest because they are very successful in the program.

Nooner causes controversy

by Noel Holmgren

A protest in the Doon campus of thousands of College students is scheduled to begin today, but some students will be out to battle just a noon or so later.

Many of Doon were the focus of the Doon Student Association's opposition to the new student union building, which will be built on the site of the old Doon building.
